BIG BUILDINGS FALL

An Accident at Wheeling, W. Va., with Fatal Results.

SIX LIVES PROBABLY SACRIFICED.

Among the Dead Is Rev. F. H. Parke, Vicar
General of the Catholic Diocese of Wheeling—The Accident a Result of Criminal Negligence.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 10.—Yesterday the south wall of the four-story brick block of T. T. Hutchinson company, on the corner of Main street and the alley south of Twelfth, collapsed without warning. Next north of it W. H. Chapman & Son were just finishing a five-story brick block, to be used as a paint, glass and builders' supply store, and they already had stored in it about $14,000 worth of stock and were doing business there. Hutchinson & Co. dealt in hardware, saddlery and wagon makers' supplies, and the building was packed full of goods. The wall on the alley first fell out, pulling with it the party wall between Hutchinson's and Chapman's. People who were near say that the cracking of timbers was like the rattle of musketry, and that in a few seconds everything was rendered insubstantial by a huge cloud of dust. The crash of the falling building was terrific and soon drew thousands to the scene. The horror of the accident was increased by fire, and as there were large quantities of oil, turpentine and the like in Chapman & Son's the situation was belated.

As soon as people about the place became cool enough to think it was found that there were buried in the Hutchinson building ruins four employees, as follows: Robert Winchester, Eugene Birch, P. J. Jordan and M. J. Ford.

Charles Haller, the bookkeeper, and Adam Blume, junior partner, were pinned up against the north wall, and were released by pressing the iron of the windows. They were unhurt. Mr. Hutchinson was in the second story and was badly injured, but was rescued alive, and hopes are entertained that he may recover. Ford was rescued after hard work by a large force of men and found alive, but unconscious. He was taken out after an hour's work and removed to a hospital. He may get well. The other three employees, Winchester, Birch and Jordan, are still in the ruins and doubtless dead.

When the collapse came Ford was selling a bill of goods to Benjamin Pritchard, a wagon manufacturer of Buchanan, W. Va. Pritchard's dead body was found lying across Ford's legs. He was literally crushed to death.

Shortly before the accident Very Rev. Father F. H. Parke, vicar general of the Catholic diocese of Wheeling, was seen to enter the alley, and he was believed to be killed, and this belief was sadly confirmed last night by the recovery of his body. He was 72 years of age, a distinguished clergyman, chaplain of Mount De Chantal academy, and had been twice administrator of the diocese. A Western Union telegraph messenger boy, Harry Cowl, aged 14, is also known to have been in the alley, and his body has not been recovered. Great indignation is expressed, because at the time the old Melodeon hall property was remodeled and a story added, in 1891, by Mr. Hutchinson, the walls were condemned, but he persisted in using them, and owing to the lack of adequate laws could not be prevented.

Selected Her Own Coffin Before Suicide.
AUBURN, N. Y., April 10.—After having dressed herself for her funeral and writing three letters, each containing a confession of suicide, Mrs. Marietta Rich yesterday took a dose of laudanum and died soon after being found. Five weeks ago Edward C. Rich, her husband, was found dead in bed, having been asphyxiated by escaping gas, and Mrs. Rich states in one of her letters that she could not bear to see his body, which reposes in the vault at the cemetery, "put under the earth," and requested that his body be buried at the same time as hers. On March 11, after paying the expenses of her husband's funeral, she selected and paid for her own casket, saying she had plenty of money then and might not have it when the time came for her to die.

Cincinnati's Big Tailors' Strike.
CINCINNATI, April 10.—The striking contractors held another mass meeting yesterday. Reports were read from the additional shops on strike, making the total number out 8,000. The shops in Covington, Newport and other Kentucky suburban points have joined the strikers. Secretary Abe Bloom, of the Cincinnati Tailors' association, stated that the wholesalers would meet them half way as individuals, but they want to meet the representatives of shops, and not those of the Contractors' Protective association.

Massachusetts' Sweeping Sunday Law.
BOSTON, April 10.—The house yesterday discussed the bill to regulate the observance of the Lord's day and then engaged it in concurrence with the senate. The bill provides that no entertainment shall be given on Sunday to which an admission fee is charged, prohibits any manual labor, business or work, except works of necessity and charity, any sport or game of any description. Severe penalties are provided for violations. The bill only lacks the governor's signature.

Ultimatum to Striking Miners.
PITTSBURGH, April 10.—The Pittsburgh Railroad Coal Operators' association last night issued another statement to the miners. They say that something radical must be done if the Pittsburgh district wishes to retain its lake trade. They make a final proposition to the miners that they will stand the discrimination in shipping rates, but the men must agree to work for the sixty-cent rate prevailing in Ohio, or the mines will have to be shut down this summer.

Disastrous Floods in Hungary.
BRUDA PE-ET, April 10.—The affluents of the Danube have overflowed their banks in the south of Hungary. The streets of many towns are submerged, and the foundations of hundreds of houses have crumbled and been washed away. In Semlin 2,000 people are homeless and suffering from exposure, having lost everything, including their clothing.

NEW JERSEY ELECTIONS.

A Row at New Brunswick Between Whites and Negroes.

The elections throughout New Jersey yesterday were very closely contested, and there were several exciting incidents. In New Brunswick there were a number of fights more or less vicious. Just before the polls closed there was a riot in the Sixth ward, and shots were fired. The fight began when a negro, one of a gang of about twenty-five, demanded money for his vote from John Forman, a Democratic worker. The latter refused to pay, and the negro broke out in a volley of curses. Forman turned quickly and struck the colored man a heavy blow on the face, and in a moment a hundred men were fighting in the street. The whites outnumbered the negroes three to one, and the latter were obliged to retreat. In the midst of the fight four shots were fired in quick succession by one of the negroes. One of the bullets struck Forman on the shoulder, making an ugly though not serious wound. Williamson, Rep., was elected mayor by 500 majority. The Republicans elected three aldermen, and the county board of freeholders will be Republican by about two majority.

At Orange two Democrats and three Republicans were elected to the board of aldermen. This leaves the Republicans two majority in the board. Three members of the board of education elected are Republicans and two Democrats. In East Orange, Joseph P. Thompson was elected president of the township over H. H. Hall, his Democratic opponent.

At Mount Cliff Mrs. Marshall was defeated for the position on the school board by twenty-eight majority. Three Democrats and two Republicans were elected to the council.

In Camden the election was warmly contested. Mayor Westcott and the entire Republican ticket have been re-elected by a majority of about 500 to 1,200.

In Hoboken the Democrats carried everything, electing their mayor by over 800 majority.

In Newark the Republicans won by good majorities. They elect the five members of the board of works and will have a majority in the board of aldermen.

The Republicans swept Trenton, electing Emory N. Yarb, their candidate for mayor, by 2,500 majority, and reducing materially the present Democratic minorities in common council and the county board of freeholders.

In Harrison the Democrats elected their four candidates for aldermen.

Kearney went solidly Republican.

The Democrats had a clean sweep in Barre. The board of aldermen will stand seven Democrats and four Republicans, and the board of education will be eight Democrats and seven Republicans.

The Republicans carried Elizabeth. The council will stand seven Republicans and six Democrats. The Republicans gain two in the board of school commissioners.

In Rahway Mayor Daily, Republican, has been re-elected. The city government remains Republican.

The election in Paterson resulted in a Democratic victory, while Republicans won in Jersey City.

Ex-Cashier Grady Rearrested.

COLUMBIA, Pa., April 10.—Thomas M. Grady, ex-cashier of the First National bank of Marietta, was rearrested yesterday afternoon upon a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Bell, of Philadelphia. The new charge against him is fraudulently drawing eight drafts, aggregating $31,000, on the First National bank of Philadelphia, and made payable to the order of L. H. Taylor, stock brokers. Amos Bowman, Grady's successor as cashier, testified that the latter's shortage amounted thus far to $33,500. Grady has made a complete confession, and attributes his misdeeds to unfortunate speculation, which has continued for a number of years. He was held in $15,000 bail for trial, and gave bond.

Diamond Cutters Must Go Back.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The commissioner of immigration has telegraphed to Dr. Zenner, in New York, an order for the deportation of the diamond cutters who have been held by the immigration officers awaiting the decision of the bureau upon the question whether their admission would be a violation of the alien contract labor laws. The officials of the bureau have decided, after full consideration of the case, that the entrance of the diamond cutters would be illegal and consequently all the men will be returned to Europe at the expense of the steamship company which brought them.

Radical Gains in Denmark.

COPENHAGEN, April 10.—The general elections for members of the folketing, the lower house of the Danish diet, has resulted in the return of 61 Radicals, 29 Moderates and 24 members of the Right. The Radicals gained fifteen seats. General J. J. Balmann, formerly minister of war, and M. Hoerring, minister of the interior in the present cabinet, were both defeated by Radicals. M. Koed, leader of the Free Trade party, was elected.

Menelek Will Attack the Italians.

BERLIN, April 10.—Menelek II, king of Abyssinia, has postponed his visit to Europe. He intends to attack the Italians in the autumn. His troops, who are armed with French rifles, are being drilled by a Frenchman. It is probable that the forces of the mahdi will attack the Italians simultaneously with the Abyssinians.

The alleged mistake of Druggist Berenson, of New York, in putting oil of pine in a prescription, instead of oil of ricin, caused the death of 4 months-old Solomon Cohen.

INCOME TAX FIGHTERS.

They Will Continue the Battle
Against the New Law.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OLNEY'S VIEW

He Declares That the Division of the Supreme Court Upon the Major Portion of the Law is as Binding as Though the Whole Court Favored It.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Since the delivery of the income tax decision attorneys and others interested in overthrowing the tax have been taking steps to test various parts of the law in further proceedings.

Attacks will be made both on those portions that were sustained by a tie vote and on some fresh points not passed upon in the particular cases decided on Monday. Attorney J. M. Wilson of Philadelphia & Wilson, who represented John G. Moore in the court of appeals in the recent cases, said that further proceedings would be taken immediately.

"Several parts of the law will be attacked," said he, "the principal one being the exemption from taxation of incomes under $4,000 annual. This will be attacked as an unjust discrimination. I cannot say just yet who the complainants or what the titles of the suits will be, but they will be instituted very soon, probably within a few days, and be pushed as rapidly as possible."

"So far as the lower courts are concerned," said Attorney General Olney today, "the division of the supreme court upon the income tax law is as binding as if the whole court had been unanimous in its favor. I cannot believe that any judge would grant an injunction to prevent a collector from collecting the tax on incomes derived from other sources than rents or state and municipal bonds in the face of the supreme court's action. The only way I can see by which persons who object to paying the tax can secure judicial action is by their paying the tax under protest and entering suit for its recovery."

The attorney general said that some papers had made the mistake of saying that in his argument of the cases before the court he had mentioned rents as well as public bonds as likely to be unconstitutional features of the law.

"It is a mistake to state that I included the incomes derived from rents," said Mr. Olney. "I did not believe that law would hold regarding the taxing of state and municipal bonds, and am glad the decision was against it in that regard, but I did not say anything of the sort about rents."

Private Secretary Thurber's attention being called to the statement contained in Washington papers that the president was being flooded with telegrams from all parts of the country appealing to him to call an extra session of congress to repeal the income tax law, said that not one single telegram, letter or verbal communication had been received on the subject.

DAMAGE BY FRESHETS.

The Delaware River Twenty-five Feet Above Low Water Mark.

EASTON, Pa., April 10.—A freshet of unusual magnitude prevails in the streams in this locality. The Delaware and Lehigh rivers and Bushkill creek have overflowed their banks, and the lowlands are submerged for miles around. Many factories have been compelled to shut down. The occupants of the houses along Bushkill creek have moved their effects to the second floor for safety. The Delaware is twenty-five feet above low water mark, the highest point reached in many years, and is still rising rapidly. Thousands of dollars' worth of lumber has been carried away in the lumber region.

CARBONDALE, Pa., April 10.—Heavy rains and melting snow have caused the Lackawanna river to overflow its banks. The amount of damage done will reach thousands of dollars. Bridges have been torn away, piers removed, and outhouses flooded, causing the death of many domestic animals. The flooding of mines will prevent resumption of work for weeks.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 10.—The great freshet in the Esopus creek has inundated a large part of the northern section of this city, and for miles there is nothing to be seen, looking northward, except a vast expanse of water. Great damage must result. The Mohawk and Sacandaga rivers are very high. Most of the mountain streams are gorged. One of the large trestles on Mount McGregor road was washed away, and a landslide occurred in the Adirondack road.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 10.—Heavy damages to bridges by floods continue. Both the Cape Fear and Roanoke rivers are already four feet above the danger line, and are rising rapidly.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., April 10.—Washouts and slides are reported on the three divisions on the Norfolk and Western road running into this city. The bridge over the East river was carried away and many houses were blown down here.

Confronted with a Murder Charge.

BALTIMORE, April 10.—Williams and Whitney, the highwaymen arrested in Pittsburgh, who attempted to rob and murder in Baltimore Councilman Swindell, the glass manufacturer, are now confronted with the charge of murder. The Alton (Pa.) police state that on the night of the day Williams and Whitney reached that city in their flight from Baltimore an aged German was bound and gagged and murdered and his house robbed, and that the men arrested are believed to be the murderers and robbers. Should the Alton police produce convicting evidence Williams and Whitney will be rendered to the Pennsylvania authorities.

The Workers Win a Long Strike.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 10.—The Pittsburg Store works, which were closed about five months ago by a strike, when the company attempted to enforce a 10 per cent. reduction, resumed operations this morning. All the union men have been reinstated and the old scale of wages will be paid.

IN THE HANDS OF THE JURY.

Verdict for the Defense Expected in Anna Dickinson's Damage Suit.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 10.—Judge Atcheson, in the United States circuit court, completed his charge to the jury late yesterday afternoon, and the now famous suit of Anna Dickinson, the noted political speaker and tragedienne, against her sister and four others, is in the hands of the twelve for final decision. Miss Dickinson seeks to recover $50,000 damages for being confined five weeks in the Danville insane asylum in 1891. The trial has occupied eight days, and has been attended by prominent men and women friends of the plaintiff and defendants. The crowds have been so large that hundreds have daily been denied admittance to the court room.

Judge Atcheson occupied an hour in charging the jury. His charge was plainly in favor of the defense. He brought out the strong points in the evidence which showed Miss Dickinson violent, and the peculiar actions at the time of her incarceration. When the case was ended it was the opinion of lawyers and spectators that the jury would either disagree or find a verdict in favor of the defendants.

Would-be Lynchers Thwarted.

ROUNNEY, W. Va., April 10.—Daniel S. Shaw, whose sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by Governor MacCorkle last week, narrowly escaped death from a mob of indignant citizens Monday night. It was discovered that an organization had been effected, and that he would be lynched before morning. Prosecuting Attorney W. B. Cornwell acted promptly. As Sheriff Pugh and Judge Bailey were not in town a team was hitched up, and the prisoner removed from the jail and hurried away in a blinding rain storm. He was kept in a house in an out of the way place, three miles from here, all night, and Deputy Sheriff J. W. Holling took him aboard the early morning train at a neighboring station and took him to the penitentiary.

Six Polish Miners Badly Burned.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 10.—A terrific explosion of gas in shaft No. 2 of the Squehanna Coal company, at Nanticoke, severely burned six Polish miners. They are: Simon Marzenski, aged 32, married and has a family; Stanley Zuroff, aged 27, wife and one child; Stanley Kershninski, 23, wife and one child; Wadick Gozdzinski, 23, single; Marian Kicoskey, 35, married, family in Poland; Frank Kopschinski, 23, family in Poland. Probably three or four will recover unless internal injuries develop.

Bank Officials Held for Burglary.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., April 10.—The examination of D. L. Brownson, president of the Chenango Valley bank, charged with burglary, and of Tracy Morgan, cashier, charged with burglary and grand larceny, was continued before Judge Arms yesterday. At 4:15 the defense closed and Judge Arms held Morgan in $5,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury on two charges of grand larceny and one of burglary. Brownson was held for burglary in the sum of $1,500.

Delaware's New Governor.

DOVER, Del., April 10.—William T. Watson, Delaware's new governor, has been ill for some time, and left a sick room in order to be sworn in. Later in the day he recovered somewhat from his indisposition, and there is now no doubt of his ability to assume the duties of his new office. The governor will retain his seat as senator. William T. Records, of Sussex county, was chosen speaker of the senate. The funeral of Governor Marvil will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Wife Murdered, Husband Missing.

CROWN POINT, Ind., April 10.—Near Cedar Lake Monday Mrs. Barney Elwanger, a Bohemian, aged 35 years, was murdered. Her body was found yesterday by neighbors. The back part of her skull was crushed, her nose broken and her body covered with bruises. A rolling pin was found near the body. The husband of the woman is missing. The family recently have had trouble about the division of property, and it is probably the cause of the murder.

Three Trainmen Killed.

BRADFORD, Pa., April 10.—A freight train on the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh railroad ran into a washout near Sykes, a small station between Dufur and Pinesburg. The entire train was thrown into the torrent. Engineer Taylor and his fireman, Chase, and a brakeman named McClelland were hurled under the wreck and killed.

A Boy Poisoned by Liquor.

GREENVILLE, O., April 10.—William Shoop, a boy of 15 years, residing at Weaver's Station, was furnished liquor by William Arlington, a ruffian, and the effects caused his death. Arlington has fled, and if found may be mangled.

THE REVOLT IN CUBA.

Skirmishes in Which Rebel Troops Are Defeated.

THE DEATH OF A LEADING REBEL.

Brigadier Moncada a Victim of Disease at Muscarel, Santiago de Cuba—Well Known Cubans Arrested for Conspiracy Against the Government.

HAVANA, April 10.—The troops continue pursuing the rebels, and a number of additional skirmishes have taken place. Lieutenant Padilla came upon a band of fifty rebels near San Miguel Bagas, in the province of Puerto Principe. Fighting followed, during which the leader of the rebels, Panchin Varona, was killed, and the second in command, Felipe Alvarez, was captured. A woman living in the immediate vicinity of the spot where the engagement took place was killed by a stray shot.

In the neighborhood of Mont Verde, province of Santiago de Cuba, Lieutenant Garrido overtook a number of rebels belonging to the forces of General Maceo. The government troops captured three rebels, among whom was one man who belonged to the expedition headed by General Maceo, which recently landed on the coast of Cuba. The rebels were obliged to seek refuge in the mountains, pursued by the troops. In this skirmish the government soldiers sustained no loss.

Brigadier Moncada died from illness at Muscarel, Santiago de Cuba, on Monday. He was generally known as "Guillermo," and was the leader of the rebels of Guatanamo, who recently defeated a detachment of Spanish troops commanded by General Lachambre. "Guillermo" was a negro of the blackest complexion, a carpenter by trade, and with the stature of a Hercules. In the long Cuban revolution he displayed great courage, and when General Martinez Campos brought about the pacification of Cuba "Guillermo" was appointed inspector of agriculture at Santiago de Cuba.

Private news received in this city is to the effect that the civil and military authorities of Puerto Principe were told recently by an informer of the existence of a conspiracy to raise a body of insurgents to take the field as soon as Field Marshal Martinez De Campos arrives in Cuba. The governor at once gave orders for the arrest of the conspirators, the names of whom had been betrayed by the informer. Among these taken into custody were the Marquis of Santa Lucia, and four equally well known gentlemen, all of whom are now in prison. Varona Aguiro was also denounced as being implicated in the conspiracy, but news of the discovery of the plot coming to his ears, he disappeared and his whereabouts has not yet been learned.

According to the information of the conspirators Marshal De Campos intends to land at Guantanamo, a well known sugar port on the south side of Cuba, a short distance to the eastward of Santiago.

Venezuela's Gratitude.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The president of Venezuela has sent a special message to the congresses of Venezuela concerning the attitude of the United States on the British Venezuela question. Immediately following the receipt of the president's message the congress passed resolutions, amid great enthusiasm, heartily thanking the United States for its sympathy and support, and these resolutions have just reached this city. The Venezuelan people are getting up a monster popular petition, breathing the warmest appreciation for the support of "the great republic of the north."

Murderer Buchanan Weakens.

SING SING, N. Y., April 10.—Dr. Buchanan, the condemned wife murderer, who is under sentence to be executed in the electric chair on Monday, April 23, has completely broken down, and if the condemned man continues to fail it is a question whether he will be able to walk to the execution room. He has lost thirty pounds in weight since he was sentenced two weeks ago. Buchanan did not seem to realize his position until the court of appeals confirmed his conviction.

Mr. Aubrey Will Not Contest.

CHICAGO, April 10.—James Matthew Aubrey, Jr., has filed his answer to the divorce bill of Pauline Conyn Aubrey, a daughter of Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States supreme court. The answer is very brief, and admits the single charge in the bill, which is that of intemperance in intoxicants. The answer, being a purely formal one, shows on its face that Mr. Aubrey does not desire to contest the case. Mrs. Aubrey will be awarded the custody of her two children.

Reunion of Hartman's Division.

HARTMAN, Pa., April 10.—The survivors of Hartman's division of the Eighth Army corps held their reunion here yesterday. Among those in attendance were Mrs. Hartman, the widow of the famous general, and his son Linn. A camp fire was held in the evening, at which addresses were made by Governor Hastings, Adjutant General Stewart and Linn Hartman.

Engineer and Fireman Killed.

ST. JOHN-BURY, Vt., April 10.—A passenger train on the Passumpsic division of the Boston and Maine railroad came in collision with a large lumber on the track near Smith's Mills. The locomotive was thrown off the track and overturned, and the engineer, S. J. Rooney, and fireman Lewis Emerson were so badly scalded that they died soon afterward.

Wilson's Conviction Affirmed.

ALBANY, April 10.—The court of appeals has affirmed the judgment of conviction of Charles F. Wilson, now confined in Auburn penitentiary under sentence of death. Wilson was indicted jointly with his brother, Lucius R. Wilson, for the killing of James Harvey, a detective, at Syracuse, who was trying to arrest them. Both were convicted.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

A Number of Bills Rushed Through in Both Branches.

HARRISBURG, April 10.—The legislature is taking a day off today to attend the launching of the steamship St. Paul at Philadelphia. This is the vessel which the Grangers tried to launch two weeks ago, but failed on account of bad weather. The order of business in the house yesterday was consideration of bills on third reading and a large number of measures passed this stage.

The bill to prohibit the capture for sale or barter of quail, partridges and woodcock, and providing a stringent penalty for violation of the provisions, passed finally, by a vote of 104 to 32. Should this bill become a law it will prevent the serving of these birds by restaurants and hotels. The bill establishing a state game commission also passed finally, as did bills requiring the publication of sheriff's sales notices in a German newspaper of general circulation in the several counties; regulating the construction, maintenance and inspection of buildings and party walls in cities of the second class, and authorizing the sheriff of the city of Philadelphia to advertise the real estate in one German newspaper.

In the senate a message was received from the governor announcing the appointment of John M. Walton, brother of the speaker of the house, as controller of Philadelphia. The nomination was unanimously confirmed.

Among the bills passed finally in the senate were: To authorize the incorporation of companies for constructing and maintaining boulevards; to extend to cities of the first, second and third classes the act authorizing boroughs to manufacture electricity for municipal purposes; to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors in clubs, requiring them to pay $100 license in cities of the first and second classes, $200 in cities of the third class, $150 in boroughs and $100 in townships; to create the office of deputy auditor general, at an annual salary of $3,000; providing for the teaching of vocal music in the public schools; to punish pool selling, receiving and transmitting bets, or aiding in pool selling or betting.

The Farr compulsory education bill was reconsidered.

Charges of Corruption Not Sustained. LITTLE ROCK, April 10.—The bribery investigation ended in a complete vindication of all the parties about whom rumors have so frequently circulated, and against whom Representative Yancey made a direct charge on the floor of the house last Saturday. The special committee presented a report setting forth the fact that a full and thorough investigation had been made, every rumor run down and over forty witnesses examined, and that the majority believed that there was absolutely no ground for the charges of bribery that have been so freely made. The five members who signed the majority report were all supporters of the railway commission bill, to prevent the passage of which, it was charged, money was used.

Counterfeited Two-Cent Stamps. CHICAGO, April 10.—United States secret service detectives have unearthed the most unique swindle ever perpetrated on any government, and it is believed that thousands of dollars have been secured by a gang of counterfeiters who have reproduced with wonderful skill the two-cent postage stamp. The headquarters of the gang are at Hamilton, Ont., and the stamps have been supplied by the "Canadian Novelty and Supply Company," that "company" furnishing $115 in two-cent stamps for $100. Canadian officials have been notified, and the gang will doubtless be captured.

Verdict Against "Messiah" Schweinfurth. CHICAGO, April 10.—The long delayed trial of George W. Coudrey against Jacob Schweinfurth, the Rockford "Messiah," took place in Judge Dunn's court yesterday. The jury returned a verdict awarding Coudrey $50,000 damages, the full amount asked for. The jury was but a few minutes in reaching the verdict. Schweinfurth's people say he has no money to meet the damages. Coudrey charged that the defendant alienated Mrs. Coudrey's affections from her husband by inducing her to enter his "heaven." Schweinfurth did not appear in the trial, though summoned, declaring that he "did not recognize earthly courts." He will be arrested for contempt of court.

Remarkable and Sweeping Repeal Law. RALEIGH, April 10.—The startling discovery has been made that the election law passed by the last legislature repeals all the city and town election laws enacted since 1853, but does not provide any substitutes for them in cities which this new law may affect, and whose charters may not have been amended by the late legislature, there will be no city government unless there is a provision of law for the present municipal authorities to hold over. This will be a matter for the supreme court to consider. Counsel employed by Republicans made the discovery as to this remarkable and sweeping repeal.

Death of a Noted Prohibitionist. NEW YORK, April 10.—W. Jennings Demorest, the well known Prohibitionist, died at his home, 21 East Fifty-seventh street, of pleuro pneumonia, aged 72. Mr. Demorest has long been a prominent figure in this city, and was at different times a candidate for the office of mayor and other public positions on the Prohibition ticket.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature to do its work. The proprietors do so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Six strikers indicted for Murder.

PITTSBURG, April 10.—The grand jury returned true bills against Tarentum glass house strikers, six in number, who murdered Philip Kearney Sutton, of Dunkirk, Ind., on March 23. Sutton was working in the factory as a non-union man. The murderers are all members of the Bee gang in Tarentum. Five others were also indicted for a robbery committed on the same night. The bills were also returned against the Tarentum strikers, who are known all over the country.

Belief in Cockran's Innocence. DENVER, M.D., April 10.—Excitement in Colorado country over the murder of little Sallie Duan continues. The post mortem examination on the body conclusively that the assassin was committed before her assault had added murder to his fiendish crime. The people are a unit in believing that the young school teacher, Cockran, who Price in his confession charged with being the principal actor in the crime, is entirely innocent. The dead girl's father shares in this belief.

Another Thieving Postal Clerk. CHICAGO, April 10.—Patrick C. Crane, teller of the money order division of the Chicago postoffice, was arrested last evening charged with the embezzlement of $1,416. He has been employed in the postoffice three years, and has been an excellent employee. He confessed, saying he was heavily in debt when he entered the office, and took the money to satisfy his debtors. He offered to restore the money after being arrested.

His Mother Favored His Lynching. ATLANTA, April 10.—The jury in the hanging branch of the Worley conspiracy case was selected yesterday, and the sensational testimony was begun. Worley was hanged by a band of kluksux for reporting night disturbances, and John Quarles and David Butler are on trial for participation in the effort to hang him. John A. Dixon, county treasurer of Murray county, who was with the kluksux party, and who is giving state's evidence against his former companions, told how Worley's own mother, when her son was brought by her house on the way to the lynching, had said: "No, I don't want to see the traitor."

Judge Martine's Successor. ALBANY, April 10.—Governor Morton has appointed Thomas Allison as judge of the court of general sessions in the city and county of New York, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Randolph B. Martine.

A COUSIN OF LINCOLN.

Mrs. Wood of Cedar Rapids Has Pleasant Recollections of the Rail Splitter.

Mrs. Lucy Jane Wood of Cedar Rapids, Ia., claims to be a second cousin of Abraham Lincoln. She is a daughter of James Hawks and was born at Decatur, Macon county, Ill., in 1832, and some of her earliest recollections are connected with the lanky rail splitter who afterward became president. From her third year until she was 10 she was almost helpless from disease, and Lincoln, who was a frequent visitor at her father's house, would carry her about on his shoulder and treat her very tenderly on account of her affliction.

She says he "always had a load of books when he came and would stay a month, and would then go to another family of the Hawkses. He would thus 'board around' without expense, and pursued his studies and reading until he was ready to enter a law office as a student." She was 8 years old when he removed to Springfield and began the regular study of law.

When asked by a Cedar Rapids reporter whether she considered Abolazey, Mrs. Wood said that she did not consider that matter in her childhood, but she could not recall that he did any work except when he lived with his stepmother, ten miles from her father's place. There is where he split rails and did other work necessary to the establishment of a pioneer farm. Her most vivid recollection concerns his goodness to her and her dread lest he should allow her to fall when he was carrying her on his shoulder, as he was so tall that she considered a fall from such a height as a cause of certain death.

Mrs. Wood has been twice married and is now a widow. She has lived in Cedar Rapids about a year, having moved there from Henderson county, Ills.

COMING TO MIDDLETOWN.

THE ENGLISH AND AMERICAN DOCTORS

Will Arrive and Open an Office at the MADISON HOUSE, MIDDLETOWN, N. Y.

MONDAY, APRIL 15th, 1895.

REMAINING FOR 6 DAYS.

THESE DOCTORS: Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Follicular Nervous Exhaustion, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Constipation and a host of other ailments. EVERY CASE A CURE. CONSULTATION FREE. AGREE TO TREAT.

These doctors have been most aptly termed:

THE WORLD'S GREATEST EXPERTS.

They point out, locate and describe every ache, pain and disagreeable feeling more fully, clearly and explicitly than has ever been done by any physicians on earth, and better than the patients can themselves; they understand and explain disease at a glance and hasten its inception, progress and termination.

No person should doctor any further or take any more medicine before consulting them.

A Perfect, Absolute and Permanent Cure.

Not only will callers be surprised at their wonderful knowledge of disease, their plain concise explanation of every cause and effect, but at the marvelous rapidity with which their new common sense METHOD of treatment goes to the very seat of the trouble giving almost instant relief, and in all cases that have not progressed too far.

These doctors will distinctly understand that they will not take incurable cases—reserving the right to reject any case that in their judgment has passed into the incurable stage. Last year 4,000 were so rejected. At some prior stage these cases were probably all curable. SEE TO IT THAT YOU DO NOT DELAY TOO LONG.

FREE FOR THIS VISIT ONLY.

Remember this is the last offer of free treatment. On future visits new patients will be charged the usual fee, and the following offer will never be made again.

ALL WHO VISIT THESE PHYSICIANS DURING THE ABOVE PERIOD WILL RECEIVE CONSULTATION, EXAMINATION, ADVICE AND SERVICES ABSOLUTELY FREE UNTIL CURED.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adopting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from any objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

ONE WAY OF DOING IT.

How a Middletown Policeman Handed a Helpless Drunk.

More than one person has complained to the Argus of the brutality shown by an officer, a night or two ago, in unloading a prisoner from the patrol wagon in front of the lock-up. The man was helplessly drunk, and when the wagon stopped the officer got out, grabbed the drunk by the collar, gave him a "yank," dropped him on the ground as if he had been the carcass of a dog, and then dragged him into the lock-up and dumped him into a cell, looking at the door, and left with the self-satisfied air of having performed his duty in the most finished manner.

This is one way to do it, but not the way it ought to be done.

The officer referred to, however, is one of those who is solid with the boss, and can probably do as he pleases regardless of the opinions of the public.

PRO RATA MILK FREIGHTS.

Orange County Milk Producers Combining to Secure Legislative Action.

The Orange County Milk Producers' Association is taking steps to secure, if possible, such action by the railroad companies, by legislation or otherwise, as will give a freight rate on milk according to length of haul. Under the present arrangement the milk producer at Turners has no advantage by reason of his nearness to market over the farmer who lives 200 miles further away.

This is not the first time an effort in this direction has been made, and always without success. There is little prospect that anything can be accomplished now. New York city wants the milk and the railroads want to haul it.

GIFT TO SERGEANT DUGAN.

Presented With a Badge By Members of the 24th.

At the conclusion of the drill of the 24th Separate Company, last evening, Sergeant J. F. Dugan was called to the front and centre, where Captain McIntyre, in behalf of the officers and non-commissioned officers, presented him with a company badge, of gold and enamel, suspended from a bar representing a sergeant's chevrons. Sergeant Dugan accepted the memento in a graceful speech and regretted that business interests compelled him to sever his connection with the company.

Sergeant Dugan leaves town for Reading, to-morrow.

A Remarkable Train.

One of the most remarkable trains that ever traveled over the rails of an American road, left Philadelphia recently, destined for Boston. It was composed of twenty-five cars, all handsomely decorated, and every one of them from first to last loaded with "Hires' Root Beer." There is no question but that it was the largest consignment of the kind ever made at one time in America. The value of this shipment was nearly $100,000, and it attracted great attention among the trade and railroad men, who gave it the appropriate name of "Hires' Root Beer Special." The cars contained 6,480 cases in all, 4,035 groes, or 581,040 bottles of Hires' Root Beer Extra, sufficient to make 2,995,200 gallons of root beer, or over ten glasses for each man, woman and child in New England. They also contained 2,425 cases, holding 60,000 pint bottles of root beer, ready to drink.

The above figures represent only about one-third of the total amount of this popular beverage consumed in New England during the season, but they give some idea of the wonderful popularity throughout the entire country of this greatest of all temperance drinks. A "Temperance drink for Temperance People" is the name given this most delightful beverage. Composed entirely of roots and herbs without the slightest trace of intoxicants, it is worthy the name. Not only is it a delicious thirst-satisfying drink, but it has a widely recognized value as a tonic, strengthening the system and enriching the blood.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Annual Meeting—President Wiggins Re-Elected—Librarian's Report—Truancy Discussed.

The annual meeting of the Board of Education was held last evening, present Messrs. Wiggins, Corwin, Harding, Dayton, Hanford, Howell, Swalm and Powelson.

The meeting was called to order by the clerk, and on an informal ballot for President Mr. H. W. Wiggins received seven votes, Mr. J. G. Harding one. The election of Mr. Wiggins was made unanimous.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Applications for positions as teachers were received from Helena Bender, Eva E. Briggs, Spencer Brownell and W. D. Moulton. These, together with an application from John L. Starr for a position as janitor, were ordered filed.

The report of the librarian was read and ordered on file, and a check for $23.69, the amount of fines, etc., collected, was ordered deposited with the City Treasurer.

The report showed that 143 new names were added to the public library. Eight thousand seven hundred and eighty-six books were loaned during the quarter ending, April 1st, an increase of 1,571 over the corresponding quarter of 1894.

Expenditures to the amount of $11.65 were included in the report, and $23.69 was collected from fines and sales of catalogues.

The question of truancy was discussed and a committee, consisting of President Wiggins and Messrs. Harding and Corwin, was authorized to make arrangements with institutions for the confinement and control of children who have been convicted of truancy by a magistrate.

Messrs. Corwin, Harding and Dayton were appointed auditing committee, pro tem, and the following bills were audited:

TO ABATE A NUISANCE.

Boys Who Make a Disturbance in the Post Office or Deface the Walls in the Lobby to be Arrested.

For a long time the post office officials and the public have been annoyed during the distribution of the evening mails by the assembling of boys in the lobby of the post office, who indulge in boisterous conduct. Not only this but the boys deface the walls of the building and thus render themselves liable to the law.

The matter has been reported to the postal authorities and Postmaster Elwood has been authorized to offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of those who deface the walls and will appeal to the police force to prevent the disturbance.

Now that this warning is given any Middletown boys who may find themselves in the lockup or behind the bars in Goshen jail, will have only themselves to blame.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1895.

The Brooklyn Eagle says that since McKinley's Memorial Day address in New York will be delivered on a legal holiday, he will not have to raise his voice to make it audible above the roar of reviving industries.

Present prices for wool and mutton must have anything but a soothing effect on western farmers, who sold their sheep for a song, last fall, because the shrieks of the calamity howlers had made them believe that the removal of duties on wool had ruined the sheep raising industry.

Some idea of the magnitude of the bicycle business may be gained from the fact that it is expected this year's output will be at least 400,000, and may reach 450,000 wheels. A few thousand wheels will be exported but most of them will be sold in this country.

Chicago cast 259,000 votes at last week's election. As New York's vote, last fall, was only 283,000, it would seem that Chicago is closely pressing New York in the matter of population. It is possible, however, that the spirit of "reform," which was rampant in Chicago, last week, may have led the reformers to vote at frequent intervals and to make the rounds of the polls.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

A $5,000 Verdict Against the N. Y. and N. E. Railroad.

But one case was tried in the Circuit Court at Newburgh, yesterday, that of Cecelia Beebe, admx., against the N. Y. and N. E. Railroad, to recover damages for the death of her husband, an engineer, who was killed on defendant's road Dec. 10th, 1892. The evidence showed that the conductor in charge of the train which collided with Engineer Beebe's had been overworked, having been twenty-one hours without sleep, and while asleep his train ran by the siding it should have taken. The jury gave plaintiff $5,000, the full amount claimed.

Weak Nerves

Indicate as surely as any physical symptom shows anything, that the organs and tissues of the body are not satisfied with their nourishment.

They draw their sustenance from the blood, and if the blood is thin, impure or insufficient, they are in a state of revolt. Their complaints are made to the brain, the king of the body, through the nervous system, and the result of the general dissatisfaction is what we call Nervousness.

This is a concise, reasonable explanation of the whole matter.

The cure for Nervousness, then, is simple. Purify and enrich your blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the nerves, tissues and organs will have the healthful nourishment they crave. Nervousness and Weakness will then give way to strength and health.

That this is not theory but fact is proven by the voluntary statements of thousands cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read the next column.

"With pleasure I will state that Hood's Sarsaparilla has helped me wonderfully. For several months I could not lie down to sleep on account of heart trouble and also Prostration of the Nerves.

For three years I had been doctoring, but could not get cured. I received relief for a while, but not permanent. Soon after beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla there was a change for the better. In a short time I was feeling splendidly. I now rest well and am able to do work of whatever kind. If I had not tried Hood's Sarsaparilla I do not know what would have become of me. I keep it in my house all the time, and other members of the family take it, and all say there is

Nothing Like Hood's

Sarsaparilla. I have highly recommended it and one of my neighbors has commenced taking it. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla at every opportunity." Mrs. S. BRADDOCK, 404 Erie Av., Williamsport, Pennsylvania. Be sure to get

When you can buy a 1st-class Smith's Moquette for $1 per yard, and the 2d quality for 75 cents, the very best 5-frame Body Brussels for $1, and all other grades in proportion, it seems as if every one ought to have a new carpet this spring. THE HOGAN BOILER.

SUCCESSFUL PUBLIC EXHIBITION OF ITS WONDERFUL QUALITIES!

Many Prominent Mechanical Engineers, Steam Users and Boiler Experts at the Works—Inventor Hogan's Claims of Superiority for the Boiler All Justified by Its Operations—Very Interesting Tests and Experiments—Opinions of Experts.

That yesterday was an important day for Middletown was impressed upon the minds of that number of its citizens who braved the rain and, on foot or in wagons, made their way to the Hogan boiler works to witness the series of tests of the Hogan boiler, by boiler experts, advertised to come off during the day.

The importance of the event consisted in the making known to the users of steam throughout the country, through the experts who witnessed the tests, of the superiority of the Hogan boiler and the results that are expected to follow—the creating of a demand for these boilers and the building up of a very large industry in our town.

OUT OF TOWN VISITORS.

The visitors from out of town were first entertained at lunch at the Russell House, and then taken to the works in carriages. Among them were the following:

Ed A. Schaeffer, of the Sterling Boiler Company, of New York.
Thomas S. Morris, inventor of the Climax boiler, manufactured by the Clonbrock boiler works, of Brooklyn.
Paul H. Grimm, chief engineer of the Duryea starch factory, at Glen Cove, L. I.

Jesse Govalle, representing the Engineering and Mining Journal.
C. H. Lietz, representing Robert A. Keasby, of Warren street, New York.

John L. Gans, representing Electricity.

F. R. Low, editor of Power.

M. N. Forney, editor of the American Engineer.

S. D. V. Burr, mechanical editor of Iron Age.

Fred A. Kummer, representing the Railroad Gazette.

J. T. Keating, of the E. S. Keating Steam Supply Company, of New York.

John Hopson, Jr., of Hopson & Shaffin Manufacturing Co., New London, Conn.

T. Carey, mechanical engineer, Charles Gessert, mechanical engineer, and S. B. Howells, William K. Weener, F. J. Keeley, Daniel Carty and William M. Thacher, of New York.

T. Kieley, manufacture of pressure gauges, of New York.

A representative of the American Machinist was present, but refused to give his name.

Chief Engineer Melville, of the U. S. Navy, had written that he would send a representative, but if he was present he failed to make himself known.

About fifty Middletowners were present, and these with the visitors from out of town filled the boiler house.

When the visitors had all assembled in the boiler house, Mr. C. Macardell asked the attention of the gentlemen present. He gave them a hearty welcome to the city, and said he trusted their visit would neither be without interest or profit. He then introduced Mr. John J. Hogan, the inventor of the boiler, who spoke as follows:

INVENTOR HOGAN'S ADDRESS.

In introducing boiler No. 2 to its new acquaintances and friends a short statement regarding its qualities, etc., will assist you in following up the experiments proposed.

The nominal horse power of this boiler is 200. It has twenty-six feet of grate surface. There are 838 square feet of heating surface, of which 811 square feet are in the tubes when based on the external diameter of the tubes. We hope to show you an evaporation of about seven to eight pounds of water per square foot of heating surface as against two and one-half pounds of water per square foot in other boilers.

In time this high evaporation will be exceeded, as the power of this boiler is only limited by the amount of fuel consumed on the grate. Some English makers of small tube boilers claim an evaporation of from twelve to seventeen pounds of water per square foot of surface with ten to twelve inches of draft pressure. You will please notice our draft pressure when evaporating seven to eight pounds as well as the fuel consumption. We, therefore, are justified in claiming that for land and especially for marine purposes we produce the lightest boilers, in the largest unit, with the smallest number of parts, with the lowest number of joints, occupying the smallest floor space, and evaporating the greatest quantity of water with one pound of coal.

Among some of the conditions of design adhered to in this boiler may be mentioned the presentation of the fire and gases to the heating surfaces. The heating surfaces are above the fire, excepting the surfaces forming the outside wall of the first return flue. The gases are in large volumes around the heating surfaces. On account of these large volumes the temperatures of the gases are maintained and not reduced as when passing or forced through narrow orifices or passages. Boilers with such small passages may be termed "gas condensers," and not steam producers. Steady production of steam is only possible where the heating surfaces are surrounded by a large non-fluctuating volume of gases at uniform temperature.

The rapid escape of steam from the water as it is made produces a steady water line, which is readily apparent to you. The effect of sudden demands for steam on the boiler will be shown by an experiment, which, if attempted on any other boiler, would be considered dangerous. A large pipe, four inches, will be opened to the atmosphere. During the operation, the motion of the water line will be noticed. In this boiler the water will not be thrown out of the boiler. Of course, this test is much more severe than any sudden demand for steam by engines when running. The boiler in this instance will be drawn on, to above its working capacity, while with engines connected the demand for steam does not exceed the capacity of the boiler. The extraction by mechanical means of the steam from the entrained particles of water is fully provided for. A practical demonstration will be given so that the dryness of the steam will be apparent. The descending steam pipe and its length of 120 feet do not affect the condition of the steam produced.

The supply of water to the heating surfaces by circulation and the introduction of feed water at low temperatures have been specially provided for in the design of this boiler. The method of introducing the feed water causes precipitation of foreign matter at the temperature of the water in the boiler before the incoming water comes in contact with the surfaces exposed to the fire and heated gases.

The only object of circulation or motion of water in a steam boiler is to permit the water to absorb heat. This circulation or motion is relatively and actually slow and will not clean the surfaces exposed to the heat. There is only one way to keep the heating surfaces clean and that is to prevent all sediment and dirt from coming in contact with them. Steam boilers, as a rule, have no provision for precipitation, and no depositary for sediment unexposed to heat, and, for this reason, water tubes require frequent cleaning or they fill rapidly with hard scale. Even with moderately good water, in fact where rain water has been used, tubes in horizontally inclined water tube boilers have been filled solid and burned out in two months.

To this boiler two methods of introducing feed water are attached. They are known as the external and internal water inductors. On the external inductors, valves are so arranged that the appliances within the inductor casing can be removed and cleaned when necessary without stopping the boiler. The temperatures of the water from the external inductors, as it passes to the heating surfaces, will be taken, and you can then judge of the advantages of these inductors and of the uselessness of a large expenditure in what are known as feed water heaters. The external and internal inductors give identical all the same economical results in operation so far as the consumption of fuel is concerned. During the past four months water has been introduced into this boiler at from 40 degrees to 45 degrees, Fahr., constantly, day and night, with the external thermometer occasionally below zero, and sometimes reaching as low as 14 degrees below that point, and yet no injury has occurred to any part of the boiler.

Blowing off and through the internal inductor into the atmosphere while the boiler is running, is an unusual experiment, as it will necessitate the opening of the mud drum to the atmosphere. It will therefore appear as if the boiler was running with the lower end open.

With regard to the various tests of this boiler and the boiler at the State Hospital and the reports which have been made of them, I desire to state that we do not pretend to correct or contradict the accepted statements of the heating values of the various coals as ascertained in laboratory tests. We simply state the facts as they are developed before us. I will refer to one test of this boiler, made January 1st of this year, when, during the first hour, 286 pounds of combustibles were put on the grate and 950 pounds of water were evaporated. After the last combustibles were put on the grate, before all combustibles were consumed, 650 pounds of water were evaporated. From the beginning of the second hour to the time the last combustibles were put on the grate, 687 pounds of combustibles were used and 7,500 pounds of water evaporated during six hours. The evaporation averaged 15.98 pounds of water per pound of combustible, and 6.84 pounds of water per pound of coal, during six hours. With similar firing the same evaporation could be continued indefinitely, the starting and stopping being the same.

We shall be pleased to place all original data relating to tests before you for examination. We shall also be pleased, if any of you remain, to open this boiler, to-morrow, and show its internal and external condition in the flues after four months running.

EXHIBITING THE BOILER.

To have carried out the full programme would have required five or six hours time, and as the exhibition began late three of the tests were omitted—namely, induced draft, natural draft and side dampers.

Engineer Paul H. Grimm, John Hopson, Jr., of New London, Conn., and Editor M. N. Forney, of American Engineer, were appointed a committee to supervise the exhibition and make a report.

All of the trials were watched with interest by all present, and all passed off satisfactorily to the officers of the company and the assembled guests.

The committee's report has not yet been made but it was evident even to those unfamiliar with steam boilers that the committee and other boiler experts present were very favorably impressed with the boiler, and some of the latter expressed themselves in a way that left no doubt as to their opinions.

OPINIONS OF EXPERTS.

Mr. Thomas S. Morris, the inventor of the Climax boiler, was the most outspoken in praise of the Hogan boiler. He said this boiler was the surprise of his life time and during the forced draft test when the fire was hot he said: "The result of exposing the tubes of an inclined water tubular boiler to such heat would be that such boilers would have to lie down and die." Yet this was not the hottest fire the boiler had been subjected to. Mr. Morris was also very much impressed with the extraordinary dryness of the steam.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Mr. Schaeffer, of the Sterling Boiler Co., expressed his surprise at the great power per square foot of heating surface obtained in this as compared with other boilers.

WHAT THE BOILER DID.

Although the nominal horse power of the boiler is 100, it developed 160 horse power during the tests, yesterday, and has shown 200 on former occasions.

During the forced draft test the boiler evaporated 100 pounds of water per minute, but how much greater the evaporation might have been is not known as the pump was not of sufficient capacity to supply water as fast as the boiler could use it.

The exhibitions were most interesting and instructive to all who had the pleasure of witnessing them. The same series of tests will be given, upon request, we are informed, at any time to steam users, manufacturers and others interested in steam boilers.

While there is no doubt, whatever, of the favorable impression made upon the experts, yesterday, the report of the committee will be awaited with interest, as the gentleman composing the committee are recognized authorities, and what they may say will have much weight with those whom the Hogan Boiler Company hopes to number among its customers.

Miss Bessie Schellenberg recited "The Horse Race" in an admirable manner. An organ solo by the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. Phillip Gorr, was a feature of the entertainment and a solo by Mr. O. J. J. Werley, "The Knight of the Iron Cross," was enthusiastically encored. Miss Wengenroth recited in German and her effort was greeted with hearty applause.

After the entertainment the Council adjourned to Mr. Chris. Schwartz's restaurant, where an excellent collation was served.

Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco user for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sirs—I have used chewing tobacco very extensively the past thirty years. I tried so many different brands, and other remedies, but without success until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I continued chewing and using tobacco until I had used the entire box, and the horrible craving for tobacco has left me, and I consider myself cured. I can fully recommend "Baco-Curo" to any person who is a slave to the tobacco habit.

Dear Sirs—I have used chewing tobacco very extensively the past thirty years. I tried so many different brands, and other remedies, but without success until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I continued chewing and using tobacco until I had used the entire box, and the horrible craving for tobacco has left me, and I consider myself cured. I can fully recommend "Baco-Curo" to any person who is a slave to the tobacco habit.

Yours truly,
D. S. WHITE.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Second Day's Work—Prof. Hendrick's Interesting Talks on Arithmetic and School Government—Lesson in Drawing—No Chance for Shirkers—New Names on the Register.

Specially Reported for the DAILY ARGUS.

GOSHEN, April 9.—Fickle April was kinder to the teachers, to-day, and while she threatened showers, she did not send them, for which we are all grateful.

The morning session was opened by singing "Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God Almighty." The conductor then read the xix Psalm, which was followed by the Lord's prayer. After roll call, Professor Hendrick began the first of his talks on arithmetic, using as a subject, "The Value of a Fraction." This was of much practical value to his audience. The principal points were that children should be made to understand the value of fractions before large numbers were used, as such numbers dull the mind. The process of reasoning is forgotten in the multiplicity of figures. Such work is good after the process of working is thoroughly understood, but not till then. Professor Hendrick is decidedly original in his methods of illustration, and we all enjoyed very much the description of the perplexity of the farmer who was well up in ordinary figures, but not good at a fraction, and the difficulties of his daughter Mary, recently graduated, but who had forgotten where to put the decimal point.

The second period was opened by singing, after which Miss Rice continued her valuable work on color. As this work has a very direct bearing upon the uniform examinations, the teachers followed her very closely. The color work was followed by a lesson in perspective. Every one was sorry when the conductor called "time."

The third period was opened by a second calling of the roll. Teachers who used to find it easy to "cut" a session, find the way of the "cutter" very hard, just now. After roll call, the conductor continued his work on arithmetic, speaking particularly of decimal fractions, and their relation to common fractions.

Mr. E. E. Conkling, one of the secretaries, was taken suddenly ill during the morning, but recovered so as to be able to attend in the afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

After singing, the conductor gave a review of the common school system of education in this State, which was very interesting, and which was especially appropriate, to-day being the centennial of the event. He was followed by Miss Rice, who took up her work in perspective. Miss Rice clearly proved the necessity of a thorough knowledge of this subject, if anything like correct drawing is to be done. She gave a valuable diagram of the first steps in perspective.

The second period was opened by singing, after which Professor Hendrick gave a talk on "The Teachers' Preparation for Government." It was decidedly interesting and instructive. Common sense is necessary to success in any walk of life, and particularly in school teaching.

We are all looking forward with interest to the Professor's lecture this evening, which is to be on "A Tramp Through Switzerland."

HERE'S APRIL.

Now Purify the Blood,
Feed the Nerves.

Take Paine's Celery
Compound Now.

It Speedily Makes People Well.

Cures Disease When All Else Fails.

In Every Civilized Land It is a Blessing.

Is Used by Physicians in Every Community.

Endorsed by Thousands of People in New York State.

In every civilized country people are now taking Paine's celery compound.

Persons employed constantly indoors emerge from the long confinement of winter reduced in strength and nervous vitality. The need of a spring medicine for years impressed itself on the attention of a thinking people.

But with a lack of a really valuable scientific preparation people were accustomed to take all sorts of home-made concoctions—some harmless, but none of any great value.

Finally, in the famous laboratory of Dartmouth medical school, Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., discovered the formula for Paine's celery compound, the remedy that has become the standard nerve restorer, blood purifier and strengthener from one end of the country to the other, the preparation that stands unrivaled as—

The world's great spring remedy. Not only is this known to the people generally to-day, but it is the one remedy invariably ordered by the modern class of physicians in all cases of nervous debility.

Since the appearance of Paine's celery compound, when first prescribed by Prof. Phelps, there has been no difference of opinion among scientific men as to its unrivaled merits.

The reports of the many cases where this remarkable remedy has saved life and restored health, have again and again been given at length in the medical reviews and the newspapers, until today the whole country is familiar with the power of Paine's celery compound over disease. More than one influential paper has spoken in editorial columns of this great modern remedy as a remarkable instance of a scientific discovery, emanating from the very highest medical authority, and taken up later by the whole people, till to-day it is the recognized remedy of the world for all forms of weakness.

No such complete agreement of the popular belief and professional judgment ever before happened.

Just now, when the new year—that is the spring—is overhauling the body and trying to arouse it to drive out disease, it is well to know what to do in order to help the good work along. When the nerves count up the gains and losses of the winter, most every one is sure to find that he stands in need of a spring medicine to tone him up, to make richer and purer blood, and to make his nerves sound and vigorous. The marvelous ability of rapidly reconstructing worn-out tissues, of purifying the blood and feeding tired nerves has won for Paine's celery compound the written endorsement of thousands of careful physicians.

It is a fact much commented on that men and women of national reputation and prominence, educated people, who are careful what they employ when sick, have of their own accord sent letters describing fully their permanent recovery from rheumatism, heart weakness, sleeplessness, debility, kidney troubles and from diseases of the stomach and liver.

In all these cases of recovery from serious disorders and the general feeble health that comes directly from bad state of blood and impaired nerves, Paine's celery compound has always removed disease and established health again. It begins to give its great help immediately.

This is how it has made men and women come to speak of it as "the remedy that makes people well." This significant phrase has been repeated so often from mouth to mouth that it is now everywhere insepar-ably associated with Paine's celery compound, not only by the physicians who daily prescribe it, but by the thousands of ailing people, young and old, who go to it for aid and comfort. Take it now.
